

Let the Cloud Cover Your Practice

We know that protecting your client's data is at the top of your mind when you're working. That's why 53% of small business owners aim to increase their data security when they switch over to cloud hosting ¹. If you are looking to help your firm work faster while also being more flexible and secure, cloud hosting has you covered. Here's what you can expect when you take your practice to the cloud.

Enhanced Flexibility

Cloud hosting lets you take your desktop software wherever you go. Intuit Hosting for ProSeries and Lacerte lets you simplify your collaboration with the ability to work from the same data at the same time through multi-user access.

Best-in-class security

With cloud hosting, your data is protected with enterprise firewall and antivirus protection, and encryption—as well as off-site data storage to help prevent data loss. Intuit Hosting for ProSeries and Lacerte features industry-standard SSL-based encryption to help protect your and your clients' data.

Reduced IT Hassle

Whether you have an IT expert on your staff or not, cloud hosting will improve and streamline your IT processes. With Intuit Hosting for ProSeries and Lacerte, a dedicated engineering team will manage hosting your data so you don't have to. In addition, you won't need to worry about maxing out on storage space since it includes unlimited tax data storage and easy updates.

Top-Tier Reliability

With cloud hosting, your data will be automatically backed up so that you can have peace of mind that your data won't be lost and you can focus on your clients. Intuit Hosting for ProSeries and Lacerte backs up your data nightly and stores it for 90 days, and our 99.99% uptime means your software will be ready when you need it.

Ultimate Usability

Cloud hosting means you can stay in the same workflow that you use every day. No additional installations, servers, maintenance, or backups needed.

Seamless Access

When using cloud hosting, you can return to your workflow from any device and jump right back in – giving you the freedom to work whenever and from wherever.

Sometimes, small leaps can lead to big benefits! Moving your practice to the cloud is the right step to improving not only your business – but also your peace of mind.
